Str8-n-Up wants to make sure that your dissatisfaction with our product is not due to sizing/fitting issues. Our product is based on special sizing that is unisex. In your original package, there is a document that shows how to properly measure yourself. If it is a case due to wrong size ordered, we will be more than happy to exchange it for the right size.

We encourage customers to view the short video on how to properly put on Str8-n-Up on our official site <http://www.str8-n-up.com/noslouch/Instructions.html>. If not put on correctly, Str8-n-Up will feel awkward and will not work for the user.

Str8-n-Up is not for those looking for a brace or some type of support to hold their shoulders in place. Str8-n-Up is a tool to help the user condition themselves so that the user will know what proper form should be and feel. The tension of the bands should give a SLIGHT pull to the shoulders and neck muscles. The band tension should not be a tight pull, this could cause injury to user. Anyone one having health issues should first consult medical advise with their physician or a qualified health care professional before using Str8-n-Up.
